

I Will Judge My Lazy People, Because Few Will Go To The Mission Field

“My people generally are lazy, and for that I will judge. I called them unto the mission field, but few will go. For that I Am aroused with wrath, because My people will not obey Me, My son. What shall I do with them? They shall enter judgment, My son, and I shall judge their lives. That I shall judge severely, because they know what to do but refuse to do it. Few shall enter My Kingdom because few do My will for their lives and obey Me, My son. You are one of the few. Obey Me. Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen forever, My son.”
